

There Was No Dinking in Delray at the Regency South Pickleball Reunion

By Bob Zyontz

February 4, 2025, was no ordinary day in beautiful, Delray Beach, Florida. At 12 noon, the “Gang of 18” current and former Regency pickleball fanatics descended upon the Huntington Pointe community, winter home to our very own snowbird, “Cowboy Bob” Jacklin, to meet up, perspire, and play some spirited pickleball.

While most of the group paddled up, Gary Lynn and Bob Zyontz were on the disabled list and reluctantly played the role of spectators. Sharon Ben ‘Ous was also there to support husband Maurice.

This event, organized by Bobby Harris, and graciously hosted by Cowboy Bob, was the second in what is expected to become an annual one. It was great catching up with everyone and watching the lobbing and slamming action taking place at Regency’s southern outpost in the hot Florida sun.

Caption: Regency pickleballers pose for a group photo. Front row, left to right: Steve Selby, Helen Zyontz, Harriet Blumenstock, Norm Blumenstock, Sharon Ben ‘Ous, Maurice Ben ‘Ous, and former resident Steve Gelwag. Back row, left to right: Gary Lynn, Mozey Ghaffari, former resident Jay Sachs, Bob Isaacs, Bob Jacklin, Bob Zyontz, Bobby Harris, Mark Goldberg, Steve Schweitzer, and Stan Wainberg.

Photo: Uncredited.